Said convention shall consist of delegates chosen by the counties composing said Legislative district who shall be selected by mass meetings held at the county seats of the counties composing said Legislative district on Saturday, July 20th, 1901, at 2 o'clock p. m. The basis of representation in said convention shall be one vote for each 100 voters and one vote for a fraction over 50 votes east for McKinley electors at the November election, 1900. J. A. BARNES.

Chmn. 9th Legislative Dist. R. GUGGILL, Secy. Owingsville, Ky., July 8th, 1901.

APPROPRIATION.—The Bath Co. Fiscal Court met here Friday and appropriated $1,012 for the purpose of defraying expenses incurred during the recent small-pox epidemic. This with former appropriations increases the amount to over $2,100 to be used for that purpose.

A MINIATURE RAILWAY.—One of the greatest novelties of the age is the Miniature Railway, the smallest steam railroad in the world. The gauge is 15 inches; the height, 36 inches from top of smoke stack on locomotive. Each passenger coach accommodates two persons, either adult or children, and is six feet long and 24 inches wide. A man standing beside the engine is from two to three feet above its top, and yet this mighty runs 12 miles an hour. It works just like the big railroad trains, and will be one of the features at the Lexington Horse Show, Fair and Carnival, Aug. 12-17. Every child in the State should see and ride it.

POLITICAL.—Olympia, Ky.—To the Republican Voters of Bath: As to my part I don't think it advisable to run a full ticket, but the field is open. I don't want any kicking now about the leaders nor "the clique." This was left to the voters and we nominated a man there can't be caught against. Wallace is a man that grew up here in our midst, and a first-class gentleman, well qualified for the place. Mr. Barnes has always been a true Republican and has stood firm to his party. Now, I don't want any pulling back. I want every man that claims to belong to the grand party to go to the polls on the first Tuesday in November and vote for Barnes and the rest of the ticket. Barnes is going to win; just as sure as the sun goes down on the second Tuesday in November Wallace will be County Judge of Bath. Now, smoke that in your pipe. Wallace has never asked the people of this county to vote for him for anything. The people are doing this and they will lead him to victory. My district (which is Preston) had upon the ground fifty or sixty voters and every one sold for Barnes for Judge and Tipton for Representative. We look upon Will Tipton as our leader and he must make this race, as he can win. J. K. JACKSON.

WALLACE BARNES.—The Republican nominee for County Judge of Bath, J. Wallace Barnes, is a member of one of the most numerous and influential families in this town or county. He is the young son of John W. Barnes, who came here when both he and the town were in their youth, and became one of the noted citizens of the place. The father was a man of strong common sense, independent in thought and action, and firm in opinion. Wallace has much of his father's character, and by a rapid process of analysis and an accurate judgment he reaches the truth in a manner that seems almost infallible. He would make an excellent County Judge, guided by the law and evidence on the bench, and in fiscal and other matters under his control he would protect the interests of the whole people, without either favoritism or oppression. Strong common sense and justice to all are his distinguishing traits. Wallace Barnes is a laboring man, dependent on his daily wages for his family's support, and his candidacy will appeal to the masses strongly. He is a most agreeable man socially and always has a cordial greeting for any acquaintance, no matter how humble or obscure. He is clever and obliging and would go to as much trouble to do a man a favor as anybody when he never expects a return for it than a "thank you" or the good will of the person obliged.

CARTMILL-PIERRAT.—Eddie Cartmill, 24, and Miss Ora Pierrat, 24, a couple from Bath county, arrived here yesterday morning and were married at Bright's Hotel by Rev. Spates, of the Methodist church. It appears that the couple eloped from Mt. Sterling, where the bride was visiting and that they lost the road somehow and after driving all night finally reached here, coming by way of Ewing, Wedonia, etc. After the ceremony the happy couple immediately embraced each other and were too happy to pay any attention to the congratulations which were offered by those who witnessed the affair.—Flemingsburg Gazette.

The foregoing elopement was learned last Tuesday evening after THE OUTLOOK forms were made up, and notice was deferred till this week. They went through this town on their way to wedded bliss. There were no family objections to the union and they could just as well have married at home, but there is the spice of romance about an elopement, you know. The wedded couple are first cousins. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Wm. Pierrat (nee Lou Tipton), of this town. She is an industrious, agreeable and much esteemed young lady and has been a help to her widowed mother in providing for the family's living. The bridegroom is the youngest son of Mrs. John Cartmill (nee Sallie Tipton), of north of town. He is a young man of industry, good habits and sound morals. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cartmill are congratulated and wished much joy.

TWO WEDDINGS.—Banks W. Coyle, son of Andrew Coyle, of Prichy, Ash, and Miss Lizzie Karick, daughter of Thomas Karick, of the Salt Well section, eloped to Maysville July 14th and were united in marriage at the Central Hotel by Rev. H. T. Cree. The bride is a stranger to the writer, but she comes of one of the best families in upper State section, being a daughter of Thomas Karick and granddaughter of John Karick, prosperous good farmer citizen, and no doubt is a worthy representative of her family. The bridegroom is a steady, industrious, moral young man and will be what a husband should be as provider and head of a family.

The bride couple were accompanied by Grant Coyle and Miss Daisy Coyle, who were reported as first to have been wedded also at Maysville, but they deferred the interesting event until Sunday afternoon, when they were made one by Elder B. H. Ross, at his home near town, at 3 o'clock. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Coyle, of Washington Branch, and is one of the prettiest girls in the neighborhood. She is amiable, modest, and, although youthful yet, will preside over her husband's home with grace and dignity. The bridegroom is a third cousin of the bride, being a son of Wm. H. Coyle, of Washington Branch. He is a nice young man in every way and worthy of his good fortune in the matrimonial lottery.

THE OUTLOOK wishes both bridal couples the best of good luck and happiness and prosperity interminable.

NOMINATED BARNES AND TIPTON.—Pursuant to call, the Republicans of this county held a delegated convention here on the 6th day of July, 1901, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for County Judge. D. R. Bishop was chosen Chairman and C. G. McAlister Secretary. All of the precincts were represented by delegates except Sharpburg No. 1. J. W. Barnes was unanimously nominated as the Republican candidate for County Judge. The convention endorsed our present Representatives in the State Legislature, Hon. C. W. Tipton, and called upon him to make the race at the coming election.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:—

Whereas, the Republican convention of delegates assembled at this July 6th, 1901, pursuant to a call of precinct meetings for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the office of County Judge at an election to be held next November;

Resolved, That the office of County Judge is the most important office in the county, and touches at the nearest point of interest all the people, in whatever condition or station in life; that it has control or supervision of large public property interests, such as a large and valuable county farm, many thousands of dollars in turnpike roads, and a large bonded debt, together with the administrative, probative and judicial affairs of every individual in the county; that executive ability, personal integrity and a disinterested, discriminating judgment to properly administer these varied affairs;

That in the person of our fellow citizen J. Wallace Barnes, whom we unanimously nominate as our candidate for County Judge to be voted for at the next November election, these requirements are all fulfilled, and we pledge for him that if he promises to reduce the salary of the County Judge that he will conscientiously keep faith with the people and fulfill his promises; that he will keep the records of his Court intact and faithfully perform all his contracts made with any individual; that he will resort to no such subterfuge or trick as to reduce the rate of taxation with one hand and the assessment with the other to deceive the taxpayers, but that he will give them, if elected, an open, straightforward, honest and efficient administration, without favor or prejudice or reward;

Resolved, That the present management of the County poor farm is inimical to the interests of the county paupers, detrimental to the financial interests of the county, destructive of the property, contrary to the law, in defiance of the judgments of the Courts, and tends to establish a noble charity for our helpless and indigent poor;

Resolved, That the best interests of the county require an equal distribution of the burdens of taxation and a fair and just distribution of the public money, and particularly do we advocate a more just and equitable distribution of the turnpike funds on the basis of the needs of the road, the amount of travel and the proportionate amount of wealth and taxes collected in the respective neighborhood of the roads.

Resolved, That we hereby endorse the manly and fearless spirit of our Representative in the Legislature, the Hon. C. W. Tipton, and commend his honest and courageous efforts in the cause of civil liberty during the trying times of his incumbency, and that it is the sense of this convention that the best interest of his party and the conservation of the cause demand his renomination and election as Representative of this district.
